Ten years of memories!

So many battles fought, so many upgrades made, so many resources earned... some numbers simply grow too impressive to stay hidden. A 10th anniversary feels like the perfect moment to bring a few of them into the spotlight. And yes, some of them turned out to be every bit as wild as expected!

623,165
guilds were created in Dominion over the years. Enough alliances and rivalries to fill a few chronicles!
MARCH 25, 2016
was the day the oldest account still active in Dominion first appeared and, apparently, took "see you in Dominion" very seriously.

1,233
bridge attacks. One player. No further questions...

492,545
players upgraded Dante to Absolute Star. Galahad may want to have a quiet word about that...

More than 200 TRILLION
has passed through Dominion over the years!
Somewhere, the economy is silently screaming.
67,981
players made it all the way to Seymour ... and Seymour definitely did not enjoy meeting them.

And that is only part of the bigger picture. Ten years later, Dominion is still full of battles, surprises, and stories worth looking back on, and the numbers keep growing right along with them.
